Hi Liz,

I wanted you to see our current yields given the drop in benchmark UST coupons. We are happy to continue to alert you during times when we believe our bonds are offering stronger than usual spreads. Since you have a $5M bond maturing May 1, I thought our rates this period might be worth reviewing before they change on April 15.

I'm happy of course to answer any questions you may have. Please reach me at 646-2301-3250.

Many thanks for your continued review and consideration.

With Best Regards,

Larry
