Hi Liz, I hope this note finds you well.

I wanted to share our new rates with you, with particular attention on the 3-year bond yielding 4.96%. The Ministry provided us with extra spread this period on our 3-year bond and today the spread is 113bps higher than the benchmark 3-year UST its priced off.

Hoping you have capacity to add to the portfolio, please reach out with any questions at all. The purchase date for the bond would be June 15, but the wire date would be Monday June 16.

Thanks as always for the review and continued interest in our paper. If you don't have capacity we certainly understand, but I felt like I needed to share this extra spread with my good customers! Thanks again Liz, hope you have a great summer.

With Best Regards,

Larry
